WORLD PLAY DAY 2012 IN KOREA

Submitted by Dr Freda Kim, founder of WPD
Chairperson of the Asian Toy Library Group

The theme of WPD 2012 at the Huimang School in Korea involved making and tasting foods from different cultures. There were also some physical activities. The school caters for disabled children from birth to 7 years and their parents who are always included in special events like WPD, camps, summer and winter schools etc.

Opening Ceremony - Principal of Huimang School

The crowd that cooked

Making Korean Glass Noodles including mother & baby

Making Spring Rolls – fathers at work
World Food including tortillas, wraps and more!

And........................ for something completely different.....................

Exercise – time for a stretch!
